At 5:00 p.m. the activities of the day came to a happy end with the class picnic at Songo Pond.

On Saturday, June 4, the Annual Meeting of the Alumni Association was held in Hanscom Hall and at 12:30 the field house was the scene of the Alumni Dinner. The speaker for the occasion was Leon Walker of Portland, Maine.

On the Alumni Field at 3:00 p.m. the Alumni met the Gould Varsity for the customary baseball game.

The Headmaster's Tea was held at 4:00 p.m. at his home for parents, alumni, faculty, and seniors.

To end this very memorable day was the long awaited Senior Reception held in the William Bingham Gymnasium at 8:00 p.m. Music was furnished by Frank Mapelsden's Orchestra.

On Sunday, June 5, at 10:30 a.m. Baccalaureate Services were held in the Congregational Church. The speaker for the service was The Reverend Edward Hickcox from Hartford, Connecticut.

The climax of Commencement Weekend came at 2:30 p.m. in the William Bingham Gymnasium when the Commencement Exercises took place. With the orchestra furnishing the music of War March of the Priests, 69 blue-clad Seniors took their seats for the program which was as follows:

Invocation Rev. Kingsley Hawthorne

Benediction

Rev. William Penner

Dick Ireland, who received third honor part, acted as chairman.

Again the strains of the War March of the Priests filled the gym and, heads held proudly aloft, the graduates of 1949 filed slowly out, their thoughts already on the challenges of the future. With them went the wishes that all might make for themselves a happy and peaceful life so that they might look back with pride on this day and on their days in school; and, above all may they remember and make use of the beloved motto of Gould Academy: "To Thine Own Self Be True."

With the Juniors

The juniors want to thank all their teachers for such marvelous patience. Cheer up, faculty, the year is almost over, and the time when you may cast off all trials and tribulations is upon you. Seriously, though, we as a class think that you are pretty swell.

This year a few new students entered our now famous class, making the roll call 63 names in length.

Our class officers are as follows:

President	Eileen Linnell
Vice President	Les Streeter
Secretary	Nancy Van
Treasurer	Mary Alice Hastings

And now — What would happen if:

Helen Angevine didn't have a date every Saturday night?

Mary Angevine changed into the shy, silent type?

Jane Annis talked all the time?

Harry Bartlett actually made the Major Leagues?

Janet Bean was quiet all the time?

Wayne Bennett simply couldn't stand football?

Ruth Berry wasn't polite to everyone?

Charles Blake didn't go around with Ada, the Ayrshire?

Ted Chadbourne wasn't longwinded? Don't get the wrong idea!

Margaret Champlain lost some of that pep?

Raymond Chase worried all the time?

Richard Chick's boisterous laugh should cease?

Lester Coolidge didn't make all his maps neat?

Nancy Cummings didn't say what she thinks?

Jane Daland couldn't think of anything to do?

Ruth Donahue always did what we expect her to do?

James Durham failed to negotiate his chemistry?

Constance Elliot suddenly developed a hatred of men?

Gerald Emery made a lot of noise?

Marylou Flynn wasn't so friendly to everyone?

Ramona Hall acquired an atrocious temper?

Susan Hamilton decided to enter a convent?

Mary Alice Hastings didn't have Davene?

Robert Hogan didn't receive any feminine correspondence?

Clarence Howe had a halo? Not the shampoo either!

Gordon Howe wasn't interested in everyone?

David Kanaly was a pessimist?

Rosemary Kelley didn't keep a few outside reading books in reserve? Thanks, Rosemary.

Robert Knight and his colleague, Mike Lawthers, parted?

Thomas Lamson didn't associate with girls?

Barbara Lawson didn't go uptown every afternoon after school?

Eileen Linnell lost some of that musical talent?

Donna Littlehale didn't ask questions?

Laurice Lord suddenly shouted very loudly?

Norman Lowell was allergic to basketballs?

Carroll Luxton didn't go around with Charles Blake?

Davene Marble didn't have Mary Alice?

Janet Mason suddenly become very interested in one of those characters sitting across the middle aisle?

John Mason failed in History?

Lynn McCann wasn't in the library every third period?

Gloria McKeen wouldn't speak to Sylvia and Helen?

Alberta Merrill didn't have a telephone?

John Neal broke another pair of skis?

Robert Norris were to suddenly flunk all his subjects?

Shelby Putnam lacked radio and electrical technicalities?

Jean Renwick suddenly became unpopular?

Sally Robinson had to go home every week-end?

Addison Saunders didn't say, "Rah!" at all the games?

Patricia Scribner had to walk home every night?

Joy Smith took six subjects instead of only five? With History, too!

Charlotte Stevens didn't have that "just-out-of-the-bandbox" look?

Leslie Streeter hadn't helped me with this masterpiece? Thanks, Les.

Lorraine Swan never went outdoors?

Grace Taylor lost some of that school spirit?

Robert Tift positively refused to sing in public any more?

Nancy Van squawked on those high notes?

William Webber played the flute instead of the bass horn?

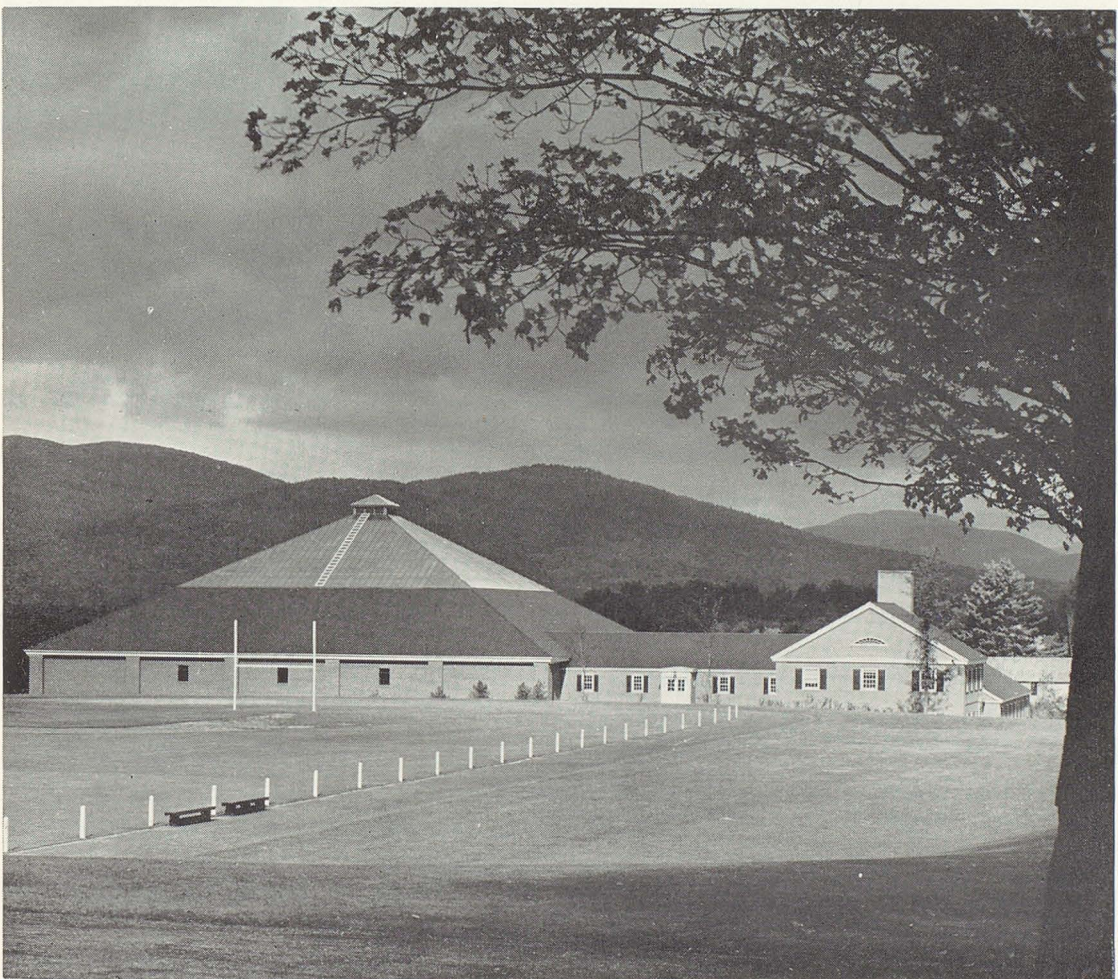

Christine Willard lost that bee-oo-tiful complexion? What do you use, Chris? Ponds?

Frederick Williamson didn't play drums in the orchestra?

Laura Yates just couldn't see through a joke?

Marigold Young forgot how to laugh?

LAURA WILSON, '51

With the Sophomores

A is for Adams, a boy who skis
Also for Agnese, who likes to tease.

B is for Bartlett, Alfaretta, that is,
Also for Bean, sophomore football whiz.
And there's Don Bennett, the mechanical brain,
Then are the Browns; there are four in this train;
Arnol, Carolyn, Eugene, and Sally Brown.

Carolyn's in the dorm, the others from town.

C is for Clark, Old Orchard's joy,
Also for Coolidge, our grocery boy.
Next we have Corkum who is, oh so shy,
And there is Croteau, a regular guy.

D is for Davis, making friends she does well.

Next there is Daye, in sports she is swell.

Then there is Dean—we all call her
Teri—

She's a girl with abilities which greatly vary.

Next we have Dorey—Tina pesters her neighbors all day—

Also there is Dorion, who keeps everyone gay.

And there is Douglass, who sports a smooth Chevrolet.

The last D is Dupee with interests in Norway.

E is for Emery with the gift of chatter to some it's a hindrance; with her it doesn't matter.

F is for Ferguson, for the ski team he jumps clear,

Also for Fortin—new to Gould this year.

G is for Gilman and Gordon who wait on table

They may not be speedy, but both are able.

H is for Hillman, Elmer's his nickname
Also for Horsfield, sailing is her game.
Last there is Hussey, a shutterbug is he.

I is for Idle; we should never be

J is for the Jordans, who are not related at all.

Arnol is the quiet one, and Dave is so tall.

K is for Kittredge—a business man is he.
He sells his rabbits and makes good money.

L is for Lawthers—he is an artist, it's true.

Also there is Lord—she'll bring a smile or two.

And there is Lovejoy—Look out! Better run!

Phil's car starts as though shot from a gun!

M is for Mace—When she pitches in
With her voracious cheering, the team's sure to win.

And also there's Murphy—his name is Roy—

Enjoying life, he is a carefree boy.

The last M is Murray—she'll do anything for you.

N there is none, so we will continue.

O is for Olson—Vi has energy plus.
We wish she would share some of it with us.

P is for Parlin—Momo's our boy.
Actions fantastic he does employ.

Then there is Patterson whose blushes
bring him fame,

And last there is Puize—Adelaide's the name.

Q is for the many questions asked by our class.

R is for Ritchie, a very cute lass.

Also for Rolphe—Patty's small enough to be missed.

And tall Margie Rowe completes the R list.

S is for the Smiths—Fred is one of the three.

And there is Phyllis with a sweet personality.

Also there is Tommy who acts well, (?)

In the class skit he was swell.

Next there is Stack, who radiates glee.

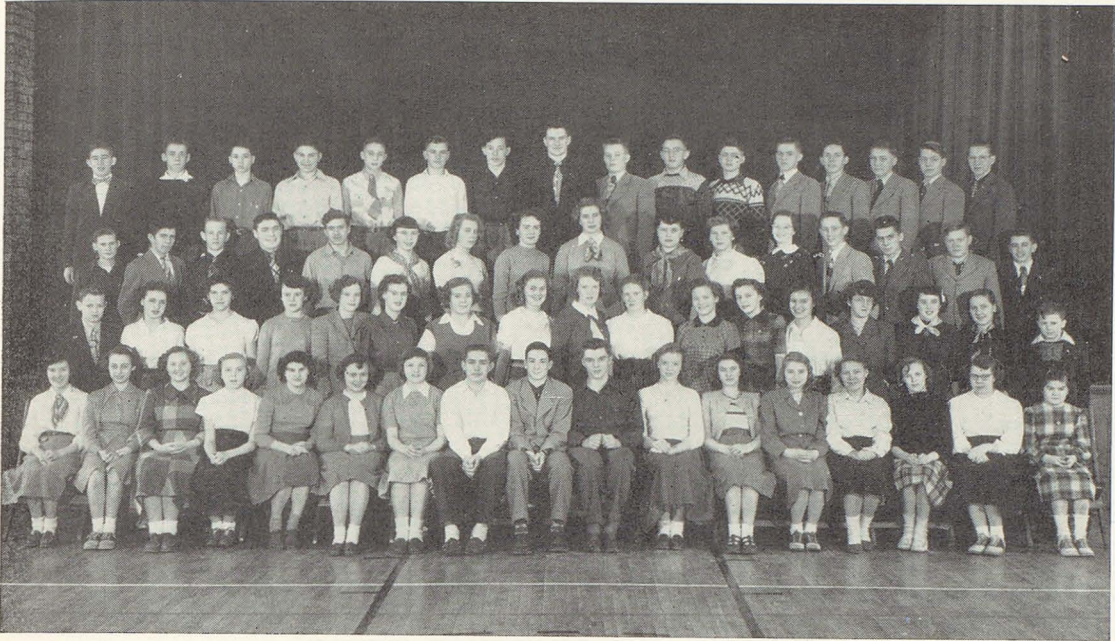

Also there's Stevens, a good sport is she.

- And then there's Stowell, who's always so neat;
Her taste of clothes is hard to beat.
Now we have Swanson whose excuses
are bad,
But forgive him for this; he's a good-natured lad.
And there is Symons—a musician is he.
Trombone is the instrument played skillfully.
- T is for time of which we don't have enough
To finish our homework and other stuff.
- U 's for the underestimation of us that the upperclassmen feel.
We hope they hold some respect which they do not reveal.
- V is for the various members of the sophomore class,
Who next year will be juniors—that is,
if they pass!
- W is for Walker—Phyllis is cheery all the day.
- And also for Willard—John's clever in many a way.
Then there are the Wilsons—Kay and Keith,
Who, 'tho you might not guess, are twins underneath.
- X is for something we could not find.
- Y is for Yates—Bryce is the rugged kind.
There is also York who is quite a tease
And usually has a trick up one of his sleeves.
Last of all is Young—known to us as Honey,
All will agree she is likeable and funny.
- Z is for the zeroes we try not to get;
And now we've completed the whole alphabet.

Fourth row: Albert Taylor; Neal Gross; Merle Cole; Dean Bennett; Oakley Godwin; Melvin Olson; Robert Hastings; Theodore Clark; Donald Sweeney; Urban Bartlett; Dennis Wilson; Harley Merrill; Edward Hastings; Erwin Bacon; Edward Jewett; Frank Murphy.

With the Freshmen

The 70 freshmen started in high hopes and great fears. At first we were a little timid but now every organization can boast of at least one member of our class. Several of our boys are turning out to be good athletes.

We have elected the following class officers:

President	Paul Bartlett
Vice President	Richard Emery
Secretary	Marie Mills
Treasurer	Carlton Brown

If you'd like to know us, and I think you will, I will try briefly to introduce us to you.

KATHERINE ANGEVINE —

Speech is silver, but silence is gold.
Kathy is proof of this proverb old.

ERWIN BACON —

Where's Erwin going with that doll?
Oh! Pardon me, it's that girl after all.

JOANNE BAKER —

"A wise old owl sat on an oak,
The more he heard, the less he spoke,
The less he spoke the more he heard.
Why can't you be like that wise old bird?"

RONALD BAKER —

Youth in pleasure should be spent.

PAUL BARTLETT —

Some of the greatest men were quiet in their youth.

SHIRLEY BARTLETT —

She is modest, but not bashful.
Free and easy, but not bold.

URBAN BARTLETT —

There lies a deal of deviltry,
Beneath this mild exterior.

ARLENE BENNETT —

The grandest things on earth—boys.

DEAN BENNETT —

Mr. Clunie, did you ever notice Dean,
Way over there in the corner?

GAILEY BROOKS —

When you see Red Hair — Beware!

BARBARA BROWN —

Wait till Saturday night!

CARLTON BROWN —

There's a lot of women he hath charmed,
You may be next so don't be alarmed.

STANLEY BROWN —

He never was a fellow that said much.

PHYLLIS CHADBOURNE —

She can be very dignified indeed,
But don't let appearance mislead.

THEODORE CLARK —

Oh, my, Oh, me, 'tis just little me.

BARBARA COLE —

Good nature is stronger than a tomahawk.

LLOYD COLE —

He's a character.

MERLE COLE —

Full of vim and lots of vigor,
He'll go far, that's what I figger.

MARY COOLIDGE —

Not very short, not very tall,
This little girl's a friend of all.

AMY CUMMINGS —

Quietly she goes on her way.
Doing her share, with little to say.

CAROL CUMMINGS —

Down from Hanover she'll come,
At seven o'clock every morn.

RICHARD EMERY —

A drawing here, a drawing there,
He can draw most anything, most anywhere.

WALTER ENMAN —

Listen to that guy sing!

ELIZABETH FERGUSON —

She speaks, acts, and behaves just like she ought. (?)

CLARA FOSTER —

Those who do the most, talk the least about what they're doing.

GERALDINE GALVIN —

A horse, A horse,
Does anybody want a horse?

OAKLEY GODWIN —

Some people are naturally quiet and shy.

NEAL GROSS —

He's a guy you'll want to know.

MARY HALL —

I cannot check my girlish blush
My color comes and goes
I redden to my finger tips
And sometimes to my toes.

EDWARD HASTINGS —

Everywhere you go you're always with a certain eighth grader.

ROBERT HASTINGS —

To those who know him best
A friend so true and hearty
To those who know him least
A very quiet party.

ROBERTA HEATH —

Forward and frolic; glee was there,
The will to do, the soul to dare.

JOAN HOBSON —

Boys! Boys! Boys!
Boys! BOYS! BOYS!

EDWARD JEWETT —

If he's not on detention, he's lost.

CLIFFORD LARSON —

He's quiet in a wise sort of way.

FRANK LINNELL —

Frank's a gentleman through and through.

BEVERLY LURVEY —

An "A" a day keeps warnings away.

ROLAND MARTIN —

Roland's an artist rare,
He draws pictures for every affair.

ELEANOR MASON —

A maid who ne'er would turn from duties way.

COLLEEN MEAD —

When there's fun she's always in it.
Never still for half a minute.

HARLEY MERRILL —

He has a sweet tooth for girls.

KERMITT MERRILL —

Im not bashful — much.

MARIE MILLS —

Our only girl class officer.

FRANK MURPHY —

He's our basketball star.

ROY MURPHY —

Oh! The luck of the Irish is all that he can say.

MELVIN OLSON —

A little nonsense now and then
Is relished by the best of men.

FLORENCE OSGOOD —

Don't talk to me about boys
Talk of something sensible.

LALA PELKEY —

Our freshman debut to the debating society.

ESTHER REYNOLDS —

Esther, who writes all those notes?

LINDA RICHARDSON —

A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance.

NANCY ROLFE —

Here's a Rolfe for Gould that's not from West Bethel.

MILDRED RUGG —

When a woman will, she will,
And you can depend on that;
When she won't, she won't,
And that's the end of that.

LOIS SCRIBNER —

Satan finds some mischief still for idle hands to do.

LORRAINE STACK —

A smile for every girl
And two for every boy.

FLOYD STAPLES —

Good roads, bad roads, up and down the river,
Floyd never fails us coming in his fliver.

BEATRICE STEVENS —

A little quiet you may have surmised,
But when you know her — Oh! you'd be surprised.

CLEO STINCHFIELD —

Tis' said that one who's very tall
Will travel far without a fall.

HENRIETTA SWAIN —

Maidens should be mild and meek.

BETH SWAN —

I was short when I was young,
And I've just never grown tall.

HUGH SWAN —

Boy, he sure loves algebra.

DONALD SWEENEY —

Such wit overwhelms us,
Especially in English class.

ALBERT TAYLOR —

When the roll is called up younder,
He'll still be late.

MARIANGE VEILLEUX —

Mariange who is always joyful and gay,
Never has unkind words to say.

JOAN WARD —

Buddy dear, Oh, Buddy dear,
Wherefore art thou, Buddy dear

CORICE WERMENCHUK —

Life is a jest and all things show it.
I thought it once and now I know it.

JOHN WITTER —

Great things have come from smaller men than he.

BARRY YORK —

A winning grin may often calm the ire wrought by mischief.

I undertook to write these notes;

I tried to be sincere;

'Twas not to knock or even mock

Or cause someone a tear.

Don't close your eyes and criticize

Or put me to a test;

My work is done;

My goal is won;

I really did my best.

SUSAN KNEELAND '53

Gehring Hall

Every day we pass through the portal bearing the inscription "Nothing is So Gentle as Strength." This year we are going to go through the girls' dorm as if we were filming brief glimpses of the girls who live here. Our tour begins at the girls' entrance.

After passing the rows of mail boxes we see Mrs. Goggins' sitting room.

The door creaks as we start up the stairs. The first room we come to is on the right of the second floor landing. Eunice Lane is arranging rows of boys' pictures on her bureau and Anne Waterman is starting the second sock of the pair she's knitting for that lucky fellow.

In the corridor the first room we come to is empty as usual. One of its inhabitants "Jo" Terriberry is leaning out the hall window while pulling on her super special ski sweater. Wonder what "Hill" she'll be 'tempting today? Where Marilyn "Juddy" Judkins is, it's hard to tell. Some people have too many irons in the fire!

There is a little corridor across the hall where Miss Thayer and Miss Whitney reside. The hum of Dixie land jazz floats into the hall. Dottie Spinney and Joyce Maxim are jitterbugging in room nineteen. Next door neighbors, Marlowe Farnum and Cynthia Dunham, come in and join the fun. Cynthia has been perusing the Sears Roebuck catalog looking for shoes big enough for Jimmie.

Cross the hall Ann Lord is writing a letter to THE college man and Edith White is working industriously on her scrapbook.

In room seventeen Ruth Berry is absorbed in the latest epistle from across the ocean blue. Marion Masse is going through her daily ritual of cleaning out the fish bowl. Those lucky fish get more attention! Just at this moment Lala Pelkey comes bursting in looking for someone to join her skiing expedition to the practice slope.

Across the hall Robin Buck is in a rosy haze from her Bates trip, and Connie Elliott is at her desk studying code in lights across the way.

Dorie Sturtevant darts out of her room with her ski class notes in search of wayward ski enthusiasts while Greta "Goopie" Gould sits at the desk of higher learning eating "Educators".

From the opposite room we hear the tap of a typewriter as Nancy Crane types out Blue and Gold articles. Peggy Perkins knits and kibitzes from the chair by the window.

In room fifteen my roommate, Priscilla "Heifitz" Pitman, scrapes the dust off her violin as she heads for orchestra session, tripping over the book "How to Hypnotize" as she goes.

Next door Aldana Dyer is playing "The Wedding Samba" and counting stitches to the beat of the band. Who is to be the lucky recipient of this pair of socks, Dana? Nancy Cooke is adding another picture to her wall collection and chiming in with the record.

Down the hall Mary "Taffy" Goodnow is painting the light with a gruesome concoction as Nancy Randall sizzles herself to a crisp under the sun lamp. Did I hear someone say something about the glow of youth?

In the room by the back stairs we find Cindy Lorenzen and Janet Coombs turning back the clock to the roaring twenties. Clad in pillow cases, bucket hats, and roll-your-own stockings, they are doing a fetching rendition of the Charleston. What a din, what dance, what dither! Senior dignity, girls?

Off the corridor Miss Griggs is sorting music, and Miss Mayo is patching broken hearts.

Once more we scale the stairs, this time to the lofty sanctuary known as third hall where the dawn of each new day brings a different set of roommates than were seen the night before.

In room one there seems to be much activity. Helen Lunt is doing a tap dance to "Chickery Chick" while Cleo Stinchfield rehearses a war whoop for the Dorm party.

Next door we find Carol Barton feeding turtles with Ignatz, the rabbit, tucked under her arm. Norah Horsfield is tacking up a sailing picture and reminiscing about the good old summer time.

Simone Thomas and Rosemary Kelley are very quiet just now in room three. Simone is engrossed in turning the heel of a sock, and Rosemary is knee-deep in voice-class books, singing the songs without sound. That is an original angle.

In room ten Jean Renwick is adding a ski picture of Les to her collection. Lynn McCann is looking very wise and studious as she pores over a thick volume on her desk. What is she reading? Why, it's a comic book tucked inside a dictionary!

As we approach Sue Hamilton and Barbara Lawson's room we hear a conversation between too strange people who call each other Herb and George. What's this, a discussion on the relative benefits of counties in Massachusetts?

Across the hall Marylou Flynn is selecting wax for a special job on her skis, humming "Old North Conway, here I Come." Marigold Young tries an experimental toot on her trumpet, and a thick ball of dust rushes out on the wings of song.

In room ten Janet Bean sorts negatives and hopes for an affirmative from home so she can go on a week end. Jane Daland is singing "Round Her Neck She Wore a Yellow Ribbon" as she ties on a scarf. She wishes her name were Eve.

Down the hall to the left, Kathy Knowles is pinning a picture of Peter on her bulletin board to the tune of "Sailing-Sailing." Sally Robinson is engrossed in writing prosy literature. To whom? Secret, but what a lengthy letter!

We surprise Joy Smith reading Captain Marvel in the next room — high adventure for Gehring Hall! Dottie "Terri" Dean is modeling the latest fashion in long red underwear.

Creeping stealthily down the little corridor we see Miss Arndt and Miss Swift doing setting up exercises. We'll sneak away so they won't ever know we've been here.

Sounds issuing from room seven indicate the presence of skilled biologist — Barbara "Buttons" Ritchie and Marjorie Murray are tending their fish and plant. Why not start a zoo up here? It's not lively enough — ahem!

In the next room we find Donna Littlehale cutting her hair again. She doesn't grow hair; she shrinks it! Each day it's a little shorter than the day before. Her roommate, Colleen Mead, is adjusting a treasured picture so it will reflect in the mirror.

In the room at the head of the stairs, Carolyn Brown's trying to choose the right ski wax to use today, while Eileen Linnell packs up her flute to go to orchestra.

Quietly we wind our way down third hall dodging flying missiles and gay girls as we go. Softly we descend the back stairs and pass Mrs. Blackadar's room on the way out. Over the door the inscription "Nothing is so Strong as Gentleness" gives us a parting thought as we leave. Our trip through Gehring Hall is over.

GEHRING HALL GROUP

Holden Hall

Once again the time has come to catalog to some degree each of Holden's 49 residents, a rather difficult job. Let's imagine that all thoughts of school were non-existent, that each was found at leisure—what would he be doing?

Occupant of room number one missing! That's John Symons, and it's very possible he's down in Skip Bartlett's room listening to records or to Skip lecturing on the finer points of skiing. Of course, he may be next door, discussing cameras with "Petrel Pete" Hussey, the old sea salt. Then again, this trio may all be in "Clem" Webber's room to shoot the bull and blow on Clem's saxophone.

Opps! Backtrack a bit to the library, won't you? There, seated at the busy chessboards, you are likely to find Fred Smith or John Mason and Wayne "Speedy" Gliman fighting it out over one board while Morrill Bott and Levi Swanson battle over the other. Frankie Linnell and Ned Jewett may be there, too, kibitzing merrily, if they're not in the pool room. Dick "Suami" Ross is in the corner, most likely, digesting the contents of the encyclopedia while waiting his turn. Jim Durham may have dropped in too, to see how Bott and Ross, the members of the "Twitch Triumvirate," are doing.

No need to look further than the pool room for Erwin Bacon or Ted Clark. Chances are five to two that they're there, though either may be downstairs working on his skis.

Don Sweeny, if he's not flourishing a cue either at a ball or at someone's head, will most likely be with the gang around the chessboards.

"Elmer" Hillman is on his way to the girls' dorm, . . .

As we pass the center stairway we are aware of a cloud of smoke drifting lazily upwards. Fire? Nope! Someone in the buttroom must have opened the door.

Venturing to peek in the door, we see thru the haze the exclusive, elusive Kappas lounging peacefully in soft wood easy chairs, puffing away. Bob Hogan, Dave Payor, Bob Hill, and Bob Gorman casually look on while Ted "Russian" Rousin gives vent to his feelings in French, and Leo Murphy bemoans the loss of their bulletin board. Making with the dust pan and broom is Bob "Sturdy" Oakes, the clean-up committee.

Caught in the darkroom is Bob Wai-gun, our Austrian friend, who takes time while his prints are washing to tell us of skiing in the Alps.

In the basement barracks we find Jim Ault, Mr. Silence himself, looking on amusedly while Tommy Lamson, the pro, gives some pointers on skiing techniques to "Shcuss Plain Bill" Clark, another denizen of this grotto.

In the ski room, tenderly grooming their precious boards, are Les Streeter, Capt. Dick Marshall, and Fritz Norton, telling each other for the umpteenth time how they could have hit 45 per on the trail if they'd only had one of those Norwegian waxes.

Upstairs we find Dick Klain leering out his door trying to bag another customer while Mike Boyd tallies up the profits.

In Bob Hamilton's room, stretched out on the bed or lolling in the chairs, are Clint Mason and Henry Agnese, discussing hopefully the prospects of the next game. No need to break up this solemn conclave.

Bob Paterson exasperatedly leans forward and turns up the volume of his radio to drown out the mellow tones of roommate Harry Look's trumpet as Harry Joe (not James) plays his favorite—"I'm Getting Sentimental Over You."

Sitting behind his littered desk, his arms and legs tangled in wire, Shelby Edison Putman can't be persuaded to look up from the construction of his new kilocycle eliminator for his radio. His notorious habit of talking to himself in a garbled language of dits and dahs, which he claims is morse code, has driven his roommate, long suffering Fred Williamson, to seek companionship in the suite of Mike Lawthers and Bob "Tiny" Knight. Here, ignoring the posters lining the walls of the exploits of "The Giggler," Mike's own claim to fame in the comic strip world, they dreamily listen to Dry Bones.

Right next door to me I can hear quite a rumpus. Sure enough, it's Morris Cotton Foye III and Jack Neal, the two pals (?) from Portsmouth, calling each other names again, while Jack's roommate Dick Chick makes the halls ring with gales of his famous laughter.

Peering past a pile of radio, yachting, and skiing books, past a set of drums, I see none other than roommate Rex Bennett sound asleep, as usual, on his bed. There's no living with that guy since he passed history. Owen Wight stands in the doorway, hands on hips, and asks when, if ever, he's going to wake up.

This all occurs in February — come spring, everyone either will be out playing baseball, out taking pictures, or just out.

Student Council

The Gould Academy Student Council, now in its fifth year of operation, is one of the finest examples of efficient student government found in any secondary school.

Its officers are: Charles Smith, President; Ann Lord, Vice-President; Doris Sturtevant, Secretary; and Les Streeter, Treasurer. Mr. Edmond Vachon is faculty advisor and Miss Natalie Mayo is the assistant supervisor.

The three committees which are so important to the proper functioning of all school activities are: The School Assembly Committee, Nancy Van, Carol Barton, Ann Lord, Ronald Kendall, and Les Streeter; the Public Relations and School Publicity Committee, Laura Wilson, Charles Smith, and Theodore Chadbourne; and the Finance Committee, Doris Sturtevant, Marilyn Mace, Roger Adams, and Henry Agnese. Charles Smith and Les Streeter represent the Student Council at meetings of the Athletic Council.

The Council was in charge of selecting films for morning assembly programs, selecting records for the weekly informal dances, selling class jewelry, arranging details of the Christmas formal, and promoting the various fund drives for the Red Cross, March of Dimes, and our affiliated school in Germany, the Berklehoff School.

Representatives of the Council also were assigned to sell tickets and usher at evening assembly programs, to check class elections, and to sell tickets at athletic activities.

The Student Council is an honored organization at Gould; members are elected by the student body to act as its representative government. They have a grave responsibility of making known the student's wishes to the Headmaster and vice versa. Membership in the Council is a respected position of which to be proud. Members are always striving for one common goal—Gould Academy's benefit and betterment.

Musical Notes

LAST SPRING

Last spring Gould sent representatives to the Western Maine and New England Music Festivals. Those participating in the New England Festival at Wellesley, Massachusetts, were as follows: chorus, Robin Buck, Edith White, and Larry Taylor; band, Lois Ann Van, David Payor, and William Kirkness; orchestra, Greta Gould, and Eileen Linnell. The Varsity Glee Club and soloists represented us at the Western Maine Festival at Lewiston. The Varsity Glee Club received an A rating and was invited to sing two numbers on the evening program at the Lewiston Armory. Following are the soloists who, also, received A ratings: Donald Lord, Lois Ann Van, Florence Pike, and John Paterson. Members of the William Rogers Chapman Club went to the Federation of Music Clubs: Sue Hamilton, Jean Renwick, Robin Buck, and Nancy Van. All received very fine ratings. At commencement time Florence Pike, one of our outstanding Chapman Club members, gave a piano recital. All of the music clubs did a fine job at the Commencement exercises. Miss Griggs presented her annual piano and voice recital.

Musical Activities at Gould

Girls' Glee Club: The Girl's Glee Club is made up of seventy-nine members. Thus far they have been doing a very creditable job.

Boys' Glee Club: Boys' Glee Club this year has thirty-six members.

Varsity Glee Club: This glee club is made up of a selected group of the best singers in the other two glee clubs. This year there are thirty-seven members.

All three glee clubs sang in the Christmas assembly which we had in the gymnasium the day before vacation.

William Rogers Chapman Club: The Chapman Club has twenty-four members this year. Auditions were held last fall, several new members being added to the club.

Band: The band this year is under the competent leadership of Mrs. Pearl Kilborn. There are twenty-five members, three of whom are grammar school pupils. Led by Jo Terribery the band has played at the basketball games.

Orchestra: This year the orchestra has seventeen members, having a cello for the first time. For the past two years this group has been fortunate to have Robert Bennett, a former graduate of Gould, as a violinist. The orchestra played at the Christmas assembly before Christmas vacation.

Choir: Students of Gould sing in both the Congregational and Methodist choirs.

The Congregational choir this year is under the direction of Mrs. Theodore Emery. Under-classmen under the direction of Miss Griggs sing in the Baccalaureate Choir at Commencement.

Miss Griggs, our music instructor, also teaches classes in music appreciation and theory and harmony. She also gives piano and voice lessons. This year Miss Griggs has a voice class once a week. These eight girls receive both group and individual training.

This year, as usual, Gould students have had the privilege of attending the Community Concerts.

THIS YEAR

Last fall the Chapman Club presented an English pianist, Mantle Childe, in a very fine piano concert at the gymnasium. Mr. Childe is a very talented pianist, who at this time was touring Canada and the United States, giving concerts. He was well received by all who heard him.

The Chapman Club presented their annual winter concert on February 12 in the gymnasium. This included an instrumental quartet, vocal and instrumental duets, duo-piano, girls' group, and a vocal ensemble by the entire club.

This year the Christmas Vesper Service took place on December 18. The Childe Jesus by Clokey was presented by the combined glee clubs.

THE BLUE AND GOLD STAFF

The Blue and Gold

The Blue and Gold is now in its eighth year of publication. In 1942 Mr. Thompson started it as a small, four-paged mimeographed sheet. In January, 1943, the first printed edition was published with the assistance of Mr. Brown, our local printer. For the past six years the paper has been functioning smoothly with Mr. Thompson as its faculty adviser. Nine issues have been planned for this year. Three of the nine will have been six-page issues published around Christmas, Carnival, and Commencement.

Last year's co-editors have been replaced this year by Marilyn Judkins as Editor-in-Chief with Doris Sturtevant and Jo Terriber as Assistant Editors. The other positions held on the staff are as follows: Bob Norris — Photograph Editor; Dick Marshall — Sports Editor; Edith White and Laura Belle Bennett — Feature Editors; Anne Waterman — Alumni Editor; and Simone Thomas as Exchange Editor. Nancy Crane and Marion Masse have been doing an able job as the typists for the paper. Marlene Anderson has taken charge of the business and advertising department. Peggy Champlain was assigned the job of Circulation Manager. Besides these various department heads there are twenty-one writers whose cooperation and work help to make the paper a success.

This paper is strictly a student publication because Mr. Thompson believes it should be run by the students themselves. This policy gives the students who work on the staff a much better opportunity for experience in writing and managing, and a valuable chance for expressing themselves. In this way our paper is a true reflection of the students' abilities and interests. The Blue and Gold is not only published for the students but for the alumni, friends and faculty of the school as well. Mr. Ireland sends copies of each edition to the trustees, also. Through The Blue and Gold one is able to follow the events at Gould throughout the year. It is an accurate and up to date record of the activities in our school life and is a valuable record which is kept through the years.

This year a new column was started by the Feature Editors. This column is entitled Grin and Share It. It tells of the jokes which are told in the various classes between the students and teachers. The column of Outstanding Among Us made its appearance in many more of the editions this year than it did the preceding year.

This year the paper was entered in a contest for secondary school papers sponsored by the Colby Echo of Colby College. This contest is planned to compare the high school papers in this area and to offer constructive criticism to the various schools.

The Blue and Gold has been a member of the Columbia Scholastic Press Association of Columbia University for five years. The circulation of the paper has increased to the present total of around five hundred copies. Our paper has developed into one of the most useful and educational extra-curricular activities in school.

Camera Club

Slides, speakers, demonstrations, work, and enthusiasm — and another year of Camera Club fun and accomplishment is closing. This year 1949-1950 has seen 16 regular meetings, one every other Wednesday, presented and received with lively interest. New illustrated lectures from the Eastman Kodak Company have been highlighted each month, narrated and produced by club members; night pictures, flash techniques, time exposure, informal snaps, home photography, and prize winning prints are examples of the useful subject matter. Special demonstration meetings dealt particularly with contact printing, developing, composition, and enlarging. Of outstanding note were the informal, illustrated talks by several members of the club and interested faculty and adults.

Alternating with scheduled meetings were work periods. An impressive variety of Christmas Cards lay drying in the darkrooms through the month of December. An endless stream of enlargements of campus activities, including sports highlights, team pictures, dorm parties formals, parents' and Carnival weekends, have been printed, a continuation of the established system of providing records of memorable events for Gould students. Hours have been spent, also, on regular contributions to the "Blue and Gold", as well as many prints for the "Academy Herald."

The first print contest, held February 1, was a special enlarging exercise. Valuable prizes were awarded by the Club to those members making the best enlargements from negatives made available by the Ansco Company. In April and May came other print contests, followed in June by the large, annual print display.

Most impressive of the Club's new features is the dark-room in Gehring Hall, completed and equipped in March. This new workroom is enjoyed immeasurably by the girls and has been very busy.

Between Thanksgiving and Christmas, the Gould Camera Club was invited to put on an exhibit at the new Bates College library. For three weeks a showing of thirty selected prints of various years was on display. It caused such decided interest that an extremely gratifying request for a similar exhibit was received here soon afterwards.

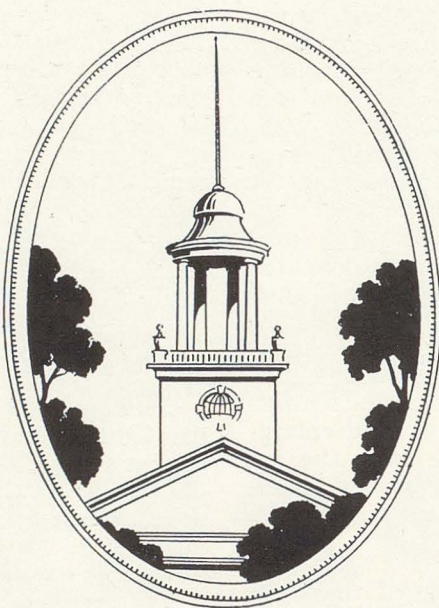

There were about 75 members of the Club who attended regular meetings. The elected officers were as follows: President, Bob Norris; Vice-President, Ann Lord; Secretaries, Janet Bean and Doris Sturtevant; Treasurer, Jo Terribery; Print Director, Morris Foye. They were helped greatly by extremely dependable sales representatives and many willing darkroom workers who, though gaining no public recognition, have been mainstays of the Club.

Immense credit for his vital contributions is due Mr. Gayle A. Foster, faculty advisor of the Camera Club. Only through his tireless efforts and countless hours of work and guidance is the success and value of the Club possible. Mr. Foster is Past President of the Pictorial Photographers of America and of the Greenwich Photographic Society. His years as instructor, exhibitor, and prize photographer serve as a background for an extensive knowledge which is passed freely on to all members of the Club.

Gould's Camera Club is unique in its impressive range of opportunities for experience in photography, which, whether leading to a good career or to a hobby of deep enjoyment, is received in return only for enthusiasm and a will to work.

Dramatics (1949-1950)

The three one-act plays annually presented during the Gould Academy Winter Carnival took place on Friday evening, the 24th of January, in the William Bingham Gymnasium.

The first was a comedy, "The Florist Shop," which dealt with the difficulties in the love life of Miss Wells, played by Helen Keehlwetter, when Maude, the shop's bookkeeper, Lala Pelkey, decided to speed up the marriage of Miss Wells to Mr. Jackson, Robert Oakes, to whom she had been engaged for fifteen years. The proprietor, Slovisky, played by Dick Ross and the office boy, Henry, Philip Lovejoy, added spice to the entertainment.

The second play, also a comedy, was "The Trysting Place" which dealt with three women, Mrs. Curtis, a young widow, Pat Scribner, Mrs. Briggs, Georgia Williamson, and her daughter Jessie, played by Peggy Champlain, who, upon meeting in a hotel lobby, attempt to conceal their lovers. Mr. Briggs, the son, played by Fred Smith, Mr. Ingoldsby, an old lover played by Robert Knight, and Rupert Smith, David Kneeland, respectively from one another. A mysterious voice issuing from behind a chair confused the six people, but turned out to be Mrs. Curtis's sweetheart, played by James Ault.

The third play was "Soap Opera," a farce, which centered around Ed Reeves, Joseph Kneeland, who, falling asleep, dreamed he was the hero of "Vera's Vicissitudes," a program that his wife Jenney, played by Sarah Dorian, and her friends Gladys, Cindy Lorenzen, and Mrs. Kjonis, Teri Dean, listened to each day without fail. Lidell Maxim portrayed The Woman in Black, actually Vera in Ed's dream, and Laura Belle Bennett as Lily, the taxi-driver, Edith White as Maggie, a policewoman, and Dick Klain as Freddy, a lawyer in search of "Vera," made the play complete with their excellent performances. Business and property management was undertaken by Ann Lord, Georgia Terriberry, Marilyn Judkins, and Greta Gould.

The popular comedy, "Skidding," was presented by the Senior Class on April 21 in the William Bingham Gymnasium. It is the picture of an American family, showing Marion Hardy, a college girl, portrayed by Georgia Terriberry, who falls in love with Wayne Trenton, Robert Hamilton, just as a career is opening up to her. Then there are the two young daughters, Estelle Hardy Campbell, Marilyn Judkins, and Myra Hardy Wilcox, Lidell Maxim, who choose to marry before they finish their education and want to "come home to Mother" at the first trouble. Mrs. Hardy, Helen Keehlwetter, is so upset by the modern tendencies of her young daughters that she goes on strike, leaving her husband, Judge Hardy, played by Richard Marshall. Young Andy Hardy, Richard Klain, is an adolescent lad with his first "crush." Grampa Hardy, Alfred Norton, is very absent-minded and reminisces about Grandma. Aunt Millie, Laura Belle Bennett, and Mr. Stubbins, David Kneeland, helped to keep the audience in a hilarious mood with their excellent portrayals.

Property and business managers for the play were Morris Foye and Ann Lord.

Mr. Thompson, dramatic coach of the English department, once more efficiently selected, cast, and directed all four plays.

Football

With many men to pick from at the beginning of the season Coach Scott and his assistants, Mr. Roderick and Mr. Emery, began molding a team to follow in the footsteps of the previous year's unbeaten squad.

After two weeks of practice, the first game of the year was played at South Paris. Gould won 14-7, after a tough battle.

With another week of rugged work under their belts, the Huskies took over Mexico to the tune of 27-6. Gould started scoring almost from the opening kickoff and never let up until the final gun.

The following weekend was Parent's Day at Gould and a good crowd turned out to see the home team win its third game. Gould put on an 80-yard drive in the last quarter to break a tie and win 21-14 in perhaps their best played game of the year.

A slightly overconfident squad journeyed to Lyndon, Vermont, the next Saturday to suffer the only blemish on their fine record. A 7-7 score was the result of a weird game which will be remembered more for its freak plays and penalties than for its good football.

Travelling to Berlin for their next game, the Huskies trounced the home club by a score of 27-6. The team was really up for this game but much of the credit must go to the fine job of scouting done by Mr. Scott and his assistants.

The following Saturday found the team at home once more playing Greenville High. Gould scored practically at will, while defeating the Lakers 40-19. The second and third stringers played most of the last half.

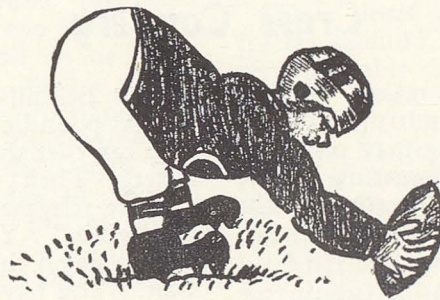

For their last game of the season, the Huskies traveled to Fryeburg to battle a team which had proved a stumbling block to many former Gould squads. Starting slowly, the Blue and Gold tallied but once in the first half. After the intermission nothing could stop them as they wound up on the long end of a 25-0 score.

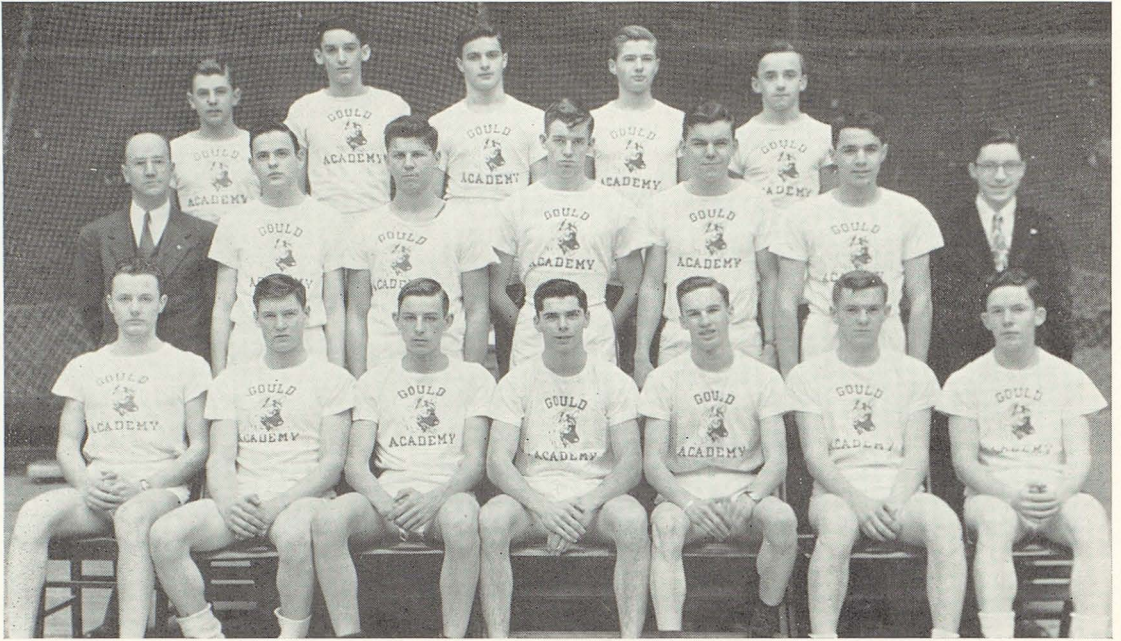

Thus the season closed with a record of 6 wins and 1 tie. Going back to the 1947 season, Gould has now amassed a streak, 19 straight games without a loss. Only 2 tie games mar this outstanding record.

Missing from next year's squad will be seven starters. They are Mason, Hill, Gorman, Marshall, Smith, Boyd, and Hamilton. But the future looks bright with such outstanding men as captain-elect Wayne Bennett, Douglass, Lowell, Streeter, and Howe returning. This is a fine nucleus around which Coach Scott should be able to build another winning combination—one which the school can be proud of.

CROSS COUNTRY TEAM

Cross Country

Many people do not realize what a gruelling sport cross country is. The spectators at the finish line may comment on the twisted faces, the sweating bodies, and the rasping breathing of some of the runners; but they still do not know what that long run is really like.

As a rule the runners will start off in a sprint which, after jockeying for a good position, is replaced by a steady pace. This pace is maintained if possible until the home stretch; then the runner gives all he has left in one last sprint. During the race, however, he experiences several differing sensations.

Picture yourself in the runner's position. You are now nearing the half-way mark, your breath coming in gasps, your legs like rubbers beneath your sweating body. Behind you you can hear the relentless pounding of feet, closer and closer. You can't let them by! You've got to go faster! Then like a gift from Heaven you are refreshed by that glorious "second wind." You now feel that you are able to finish the race in grand style. But wait. You haven't had a cramp yet. You don't want one? All right, we'll skip that and let you finish the race without difficulty.

Getting back to the Gould Cross-Country season, the Gould Harriers opened their season by entertaining Gorham, Maine, on Gould Academy's 2.7 mile course. They trained hard for about a month with the one thought of increasing their undefeated seasons to three consecutive years.

On October 7, Captain Ronnie Kendall, stellar runner of the previous year, led the pack home in 14 minutes and 5 seconds. Teddie Chadbourne and Les Coolidge followed to cop second and third; then Gorham broke into the field by placing two men in a tie for the fourth slot. Addison Saunders, Edward Hastings, and Harley Merrill, crossed the finish line for Gould just over the fifteen minute mark to give the team a 19-40 victory over Gorham. (team with low score wins.)

On October 12 Stephens High of Rumford journeyed to Gould only to be defeated by the eager Gould runners by a score of 20-39. Again Ronnie led them home, his easy running form carrying him across the finish mark in less than 14 minutes. He was followed by his ever present team mate Teddie Chadbourne. Rumford's Clark gained the third position while Saunders and Coolidge, two faithful stand-bys, earned fourth and fifth respectively. Four more Gould men crossed the line before Rumford's fifth man.

When the Huskies journeyed to Portland on October 19, they did their best to stay in the win column; although the margin was narrow (25-32), it was still a defeat, the first in three years. The Portland course did not offer too much difficulty for Captain Kendall as he raced home in 12 minutes 27.2 seconds to cop first place once more. The Portland stars then interfered setting faithful hardworking Chadbourne back in the fourth spot with Saunders and Coolidge in seventh and eighth. With six men placing in the first ten Portland handed G. A. its first loss much to the disappointment of the hopeful Huskies.

This defeat did not stop them, for their next meet was with Fryeburg, Gould's traditional rival, whom it was (in the minds of many of the student body) almost imperative to defeat. The team was very successful, handing Fryeburg a 16-39 defeat. Ronnie paced the runners, setting a record on the new course at Fryeburg. Chadbourne, Coolidge, and Saunders came in respectively. Norris came in sixth, fifth for Gould, behind Fryeburg's first man, the team missing a perfect score by one place.

November marked the day of the interscholastic run of the state meet at the University of Maine in Orono. One hundred runners represented seventeen schools in this most important meet of the year. Paul Firlotte of Ellsworth set a new course record while copping first for himself. Even though Ellsworth took the first position, Presque Isle, with three less points than Portland, won the meet and the state championship.

Captain Ronnie Kendall did well indeed to cop sixth place in Gould's name. Giving his all Ronnie finished with a very good time to his credit, crossing the finish line ahead of the entire winning team. Ronnie earned a position on the State Varsity for his efforts. Ted Chadbourne placed fourteenth, Ad Saunders 35, Coolidge 36, Bob Norris 85. Hastings and Merrill followed closely but were not reckoned in the team scoring.

Thus closes another successful season for the Gould Cross Country team. It is very probable that next year the students on the Gould campus will see captain-elect Teddie Chadbourne filling Kendall's shoes in leading home the Gould squad. Along with him will be Ad Saunders, Les Coolidge, Bob Norris, and the two potential freshmen stars, Ed Hastings and Harley Merrill. Jimmy Durham, Phil Lovejoy, John Willard will also contribute to the success of Gould's future Cross Country teams.

Coach Fossett's harriers have chalked up the enviable record of but one loss in three years of dual meet competition.

Basketball

A SEASON OF THRILLERS

The formation of the Mountain League brought the Gould basketballers up against the stiffest competition a Gould quintet has known for several years with games with some of the best teams in the state. The schedule was also the longest and can be considered fairly successful with eleven wins in twenty games. A six for ten record in the hotly contested Mountain League won a fourth place. Bethel fans had the most exciting season in many a year, for ten games ended with Gould harboring a deficit or advantage within a five point margin. The Mountain League is highly rated by all the schools and will probably continue to be in the years to come.

Starting the season without the services of three of last year's high scorers, Davis, Bennett, and Hall, Coach Anderson had some real vacancies to fill. "Hoby" Lowell took the pivot position with Hamilton, Clint Mason, and Henri Agnese cutting from the forward corners. Bob Hamilton was the real point-getter for the team scraping 335 points through the hoop, thus ranking him third high scorer in the Mountain League and establishing a Gould season record by bettering Jerry Davis's last year's mark of 270. With his rebounds and pivots "Hoby" gathered 135 points for second honors in the scoring department. Bringing the ball up were Ronnie Kendall and Charlie Smith operating as veterans should. Mike Boyd was an important link in the team, filling in for every position, guard, center and forward alike. And play he did, for the well-established "ankle-jinx" took Charlie Smith from the first six games and later temporarily crippled both Mason and Lowell.

Frequently operating a few points behind, the Huskies played a hurry-up style of ball. With no rebound height to actually count on, it was, "Get it through and quick." A more deliberate brand of ball was played with the score favorable. Falling back on defense Gould usually formed a 2-1-2 zone except in emergencies. The Huskies made their bid for a tournament berth amid the shouts of many faithful supporting fans, in a play off game with Traip Academy, losing 34-27.

Seniors who received their "G's" are Captain Charles Smith, Bob Hamilton, Clint Mason, Ronnie Kendall, Mike Boyd, Rex Bennett, and Manager Gayland Dooen. These men are going to be sadly missed when the season of 1951 rolls around. Other letter men are "Hoby" Lowell, a junior and Henri Agnese, a sophomore, who along with Wayne Bennett will be the only varsity squad men back for another year.

JUNIOR VARSITY

SKI TEAM

Winter Sports

The snow arrived in Bethel with the close of Christmas vacation, and the varsity skiers began practice immediately. Lyndon Institute arrived here Friday, January 13, for Gould's first meet. Due to snow conditions only three events were held. At the close of the competition Saturday, Gould was on top, due to Les Streeter's three firsts.

The next weekend G.A. went to Kennett on Friday for the downhill in a four event meet. After dropping behind in this event, Gould roared back in the three events Saturday to win by a large margin.

On January 27, the team journeyed to Auburn for the Edward Little Carnival. The Eddies showed surprising strength as they swept the X-Country, took close seconds in downhill and slalom, and first in the jumping to win the meet by a large margin.

The next weekend saw G.A. at Berlin for their carnival. Once again the Eddies showed their superiority as they kept Gould in second place despite Gould's triumph in the usually disastrous jumping.

The weekend of February 10 and 11 brought Gould second place in the State Meet at Andover. Edward Little took first place again by winning three events to Gould's one. The team fell behind in the first event and couldn't catch up despite Streeter's three firsts and a tenth for the skimeister trophy.

The next weekend saw G.A. at Lyndon for the New England Interscholastic Ski Meet. Gould took second in the downhill with Tom Lamson third, and Streeter fourth. By strength of another second in the x-country Gould led by a fraction of a point at the end of the first day. Gould took second place in the slalom to lead Lebanon, who took fourth, by two points. Once again it boiled down to the jumping and Lebanon's well balanced jumping squad headed G.A. by three points to bounce G.A. into second place. Streeter came in first, however, with two leaps of 109 feet.

In the last official meet of the year, Gould entertained an "A" and "B" team from Edward Little. This meet was part of the annual Winter Carnival, and the team was up to win it. Edward Little, however, won three events by enough to rub out Gould's overwhelming victory in the downhill. The "B" team won their meet by taking all but the x-country event.

Prospects for next year look bright, with Streeter, Lamson, Ferguson, Chase, Adams, Putnam, Emery, and Fortin from the "A" and "B" teams returning.

DICK MARSHALL, '50

BASEBALL TEAM

Baseball

The 1949 baseball season, under Coach Bowhay, proved to be one of the best seasons ever recorded in Gould Academy history. Even during early March practice the team showed great promise with its fight and willingness.

The cage was used comparatively little as ideal weather conditions made it possible for an early outdoor start.

On April 27, Gould traveled to Gorham, N.H., for its first game. The team looked good in winning 9-5 behind the five hit pitching of Clint Mason and capt. Richie Rolfe. Dick Marshall, Cad Bennett, and Richie Rolfe all got two hits in the victory.

Gould opened its Oxford League season on April 30 at South Paris and easily won 12-2. Again Clint Mason and Richie Rolfe held the cardinals to a low score giving up three scattered hits. Everyone hit well as the team showed much improvement.

Playing at home for the first time Gould met their traditional rival, Fryeburg. Clint Mason and Dick Rolfe held the visitors to eight hits and two runs while the Huskies, led by Dick Marshall and Bob Hamilton, scored five runs for their third victory in a row.

The next four games combined to prove Gould's great scoring power. The Huskies actually scored 66 runs to their opponents 14. Norway was first 10-3. South Paris lost 20-5. Mexico was taken 15-6. To complete this amazing total Gould beat Norway again 21-0. Marshall, Kendall and Bennett were the hitting stars while Rolfe and Mason per usual did the hurling with Dave Durgin and Mike Boyd doing their usual fine job behind the plate.

Perhaps the Gould players were a bit too sure of themselves as they entered their next game played at Fryeburg, for at the game's close the Huskies had lost 5-2. It was a tough one to lose as Gould hit the ball hard but always into someone's glove.

After this game Gould was informed that the school was invited to play in the state tournament if it won the Oxford County title. Gould had to beat Mexico to win the title and be eligible for the state series.

On May 28, a seven inning game was played to decide Gould's fate. In the second inning Mexico scored on a double and two ground-outs. Gould finally scored in its half of the fourth to take the lead 2-1. Marshall singled, and Bennett doubled to score him. A fly-out and error soon scored Bennett. This proved to be the final scoring of the day. It was a happy day for the Gould followers.

The first playoff game found Gould playing West Paris. Paris banged across two quick runs in the very first inning to take the lead. Gould fought back with one tally in the second to close the gap. Neither team could score again until the sixth inning when Gould tied it up with a line marker only to go behind once again as Paris came up with two more runs. Fighting gamely Gould pushed across one run in the eighth. With one more chance to either lose, tie or win the game the Gould boys showed their stuff. Marshall reached on an error. Don Bennett singled, Kendall singled, Cad Bennett walked, Richie Rolfe doubled, Durgin doubled, Smith singled, Hamilton singled, and at the close of this assault Gould had scored 8 runs. This was the ball game.

The next playoff game was against Greely Institute of Cumberland. This game was a typical thriller as Gould emerged the winner 4-3. Greely broke a scoreless tie in the third with one run. Gould evened it up again in the fourth on only one hit. Greely scored again in the fifth for two runs on four hits. Never giving up Gould came to life in the seventh long enough to score three quick runs and win the game as Greely could not add to their scoring total from pitcher Richie Rolfe. Cad Bennett collected two hits to lead the Gould hitters. Facing Jay for the Western Maine title Gould again won. This time it was 3-0. Capt. Richie Rolfe was in great form giving up but one hit and that was to the lead-off batter. He struck out fifteen men in this great performance. Gould scored two runs in the first on Cad Bennett's homerun. Smith, Hamilton, Bennett and Durgin all got two hits in the game.

Gould was now in the state final and was to play Shead Memorial of Eastport. Richie Rolfe was naturally chosen to start the game with Dave Durgin his battery mate. Cad Bennett was at first, Ronnie Kendall at second, Dick Marshall at short and Clint Mason was at third to complete the infield. In the outfield there was Charlie Smith, Burt Rolfe and Bob Hamilton. This was the starting line-up for the state final.

Shead scored in the second and led until the fourth when Gould tied it up. In the sixth Gould pushed across three runs to go into the lead from which they were never headed. In the seventh Gould scored six more runs to sew up the game. Capt. Rolfe struck out seventeen men in another great job while Kendall, Bennett and Mason all got two hits apiece.

It certainly was a happy group of ball players that enjoyed the banquet given them by the school after their victory. Gould was now the state champions!

Richie Rolfe has signed a contract with the Cardinals and has left for spring training while hard hitting Cad Bennett and Guy Emery, a great third base coach, have graduated leaving their positions open. The remainder of the team will be back for at least another year.

Coach Bowhay certainly did a swell job of coaching and should be congratulated. As a matter of fact, the whole team did a noteworthy job and had fun doing it. Lets hope that this year's team led by Capt. Burt Rolfe will be just as successful!

CLINT MASON, '50

1949 TRACK TEAM

Track

What was probably the most successful year of athletics ever experienced by Gould was climaxed by the track team's outstanding victory in the state meet last June 4. It was the final chapter of an undefeated season effected by a well-balanced team under the fine coaching of "Joe" Roderick and Robert Scott.

Jerry Davis and Dick Ireland, both veterans of the three previous track teams which had twice won the state crown, had been elected co-captains. Under their leaderships the team completed a rugged schedule, leaving their opponents on the short end of many one-sided scores.

April 30. Gould swept four events in downing Class A Cheverus of Portland 72½-44½, although Dick Ireland was still on crutches after injuring an ankle while skiing. Twelve scored for the home team, which monopolized the discus, broad jump, high jump, and mile. Two field records were lowered as Dick Klain sped 100 yards down the cinders in 10.5 seconds and Jerry Davis soared up 5' 9" in the high jump. Davis was high-point man with 16 while Stinchfield scored 11 and Dodge 10 points.

May 7. Ten Huskies contributed enough points to send Edward Little home with bowed heads in the second win over Class A competition. The 74-43 score included 10 first places for the Bethel team, four of which were by Davis. Double winners were Klain in the 100 and 220, and Dodge in the 880 and mile.

May 14. Franklin County tasted the superiority of Gould in a three way meet at Farmington as the Blue and Gold scored 81 points to Farmington's 41 and Kingfield's 21. Davis with 16 points and Adams with 13 paced their team while Klain, Stinchfield, and R. Davis each gained two of Gould's nine first places.

May 21. In individual and relay competition at the Bates Relays Gould's athletes garnered five firsts in ten events. Two records were broken as Jerry Davis hurled the discus 143' $\frac{1}{4}$ " and the mile medley team of Stinchfield, Grant, Dodge, and Davis finished at 3:54.9. Other firsts were Davis in the high jump; Davis, Adams, Tift, and Klain in the 440 relay at 47 seconds; and Jordan, Hickcox, Noyes, and Stinchfield in the mile relay at 3:52.7. Had team scores been taken Gould would have won with 33 followed by Kennebunk at 23.

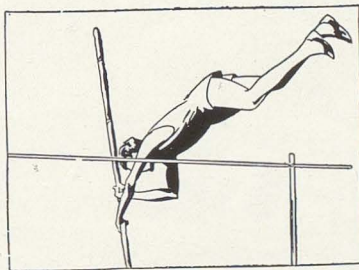

May 28. Gould completely overwhelmed its neighboring track rivals in Bethel, by winning ten events and gaining the highest point total in the history of the Oxford County Track Meet. The score: Gould 94, Fryeburg 25 $\frac{1}{2}$, Rumford 23, Mexico $\frac{1}{2}$, Dixfield 0. Davis topped the field with 17 points; Dick Ireland, running for the first time of the season, won two events, as did Dodge and Norton.

The next week the team journeyed to Colby College to rest supreme over a field of twenty-four schools in class M. Kennebunk, which had upset the winning ways of the '48 team, was shown the way off the pedestal as Gould annexed its third championship in four years to retire the coveted State Trophy. The team's balance was shown decisively as nine competitors entered the scoring column. Jerry Davis was tops with 13 $\frac{1}{2}$ points and records in the discus and high jump. Ireland scored 8 while Dodge picked up 7 points. Excepting 3 points by Norton, Gould's 41 $\frac{1}{2}$ points were gained entirely by seniors. The teams following Gould were Farmington 25, Skowhegan 24 $\frac{1}{2}$, Kennebunk 24.

Dick Klain has been elected captain of the 1950 team. He, the other veterans, and those who rise to fill the positions vacated by many graduates will be guided by the fine coaching to which the 49'ers owe much of their success.

Athletic Council

As it ends its third year, the Gould Academy Athletic Council has proved to be very valuable under the capable direction of our Headmaster, Mr. Elwood F. Ireland, chairman, and it has earned for itself a respected place in our athletics.

There have been a few changes in the membership from last year. Miss Arndt, Girls' Physical Education instructor, has capably replaced Miss Stallwood, who is in Japan. The five permanent members are: Mr. Ireland, chairman; Mr. Ordell Anderson, faculty director of athletics; Mr. Wilbur Myers, bursar; Mr. Richmond Roderick, Physical Education Director for Boys; and Miss Arndt.

There are six elective members instead of five this year. They are: Mr. George Bowhay, a head coach, elected by the permanent members; Les Streeter and Charlie Smith, who have one vote together, and were elected by the Student Council; Miss Doris Sturtevant, elected by the Girls' Athletic Association; Mr. Leslie Davis, elected by the Trustees of Gould Academy; and Mr. Elmer Bennett, elected by the alumni of Gould.

The council's duties are many. They must formulate, review, and approve all officials for home games, estimate and approve athletic budgets, authorize equipment, approve all awards for athletes and managers, formulate policies in regard to athletic injuries, specify duties of the school athletic program, and take action on all difficulties that may arise in sports.

The Council approves the awarding of the much desired letters if a boy or girl has met the many requirements in a particular sport. Only one letter may be awarded a student during his or her years at Gould. After earning one "G", the student then gets a certificate if he has met the requirements for another letter.

For outstanding service in athletics, a boy is given a blue sweater with a woven yellow "G." The athlete must have earned six successive letters or seven letters in all.

Those who have received sweaters for the school year are: Charlie Smith and Ronald Kendall.

Those that have received letters are:

a. In Skiing 1948-1949

Raymond Chase, Alfred Norton, Robert Adams, Richard Marshall, (Capt. Elect), Leslie Streeter, Richard Ireland, (Captain) and Donald Emmett (Manager).

b. In Baseball 1949

Richard Rolfe (Capt.), David Durgin, Lawrence Bennett, Ronnie Kendall, Dick Marshall, Clint Mason, Mike Boyd, Charlie Smith, Burton Rolfe, Bob Hamilton, Bob Hill (Mgr.), Guy Emery, and Don Bennett.

c. In Basketball (1948-1949)

Lawrence Bennett (Capt.), Donald Hall, Jerry Davis, Charles Smith, (Capt. Elect), Bob Hamilton, Ronald Kendall, Mike Boyd, Scott Guernsey, Robert Dodge, Dave Kneeland (Mgr.)

d. Track and Field (1949)

e. In Football (1949)

R. Marshall, G. Howe, G. Emery, L. Smith, R. Adams, D. Durgin, E. Bean, R. Klain, R. Hill, D. Payor, R. Bennett, W. Bennett, M. Boyd, R. Gorman, R. Hamilton, L. Streeter, T. Clark, R. Patterson, L. Murphy, R. Douglas, C. Mason, R. Chick, Mgr. Wight.

f. In Cross Country (1949)

Capt. Ronnie Kendall, Ted Chadbourne, Alfred Norton, Lester Coolidge, Addison Saunders, Edward Hastings, Harley Merrill, R. Norris, Mgr. R. Oakes.

Boys' Physical Education

As in previous years, the boys in the two upper classes have shared the brunt of the heavy work with daily Physical Education classes, while the "youngsters" in their first or second year of "gym" find life working out much easier with corrective classes on alternate days. These boys with experience of less than two years face a tough schedule in later sessions, for their program has been carefully planned so as not to strain growing muscles or wear down eager candidates, but to build and develop the participant into a healthy specimen slowly and surely.

Under the capable direction of "Joe" Roderick much is accomplished during the course of a year. Each boy not only receives plenty of healthful exercise but also a great deal of individual attention. Twice each year, in the spring and fall, the student is given a strength test, a type of exam by which his progress through each year is determined. Tests such as grip-strength, back-lift, dips, and pull-ups, along with recording of height and weight are carefully checked and graded in comparison to a norm. Also, at the beginning of every year, posture pictures are taken, and imprints of the feet are made. These pictures and relative tests are discussed thoroughly with the student, sometimes to the tune of taking special exercises to correct minor defects, before being filed for future reference.

When winter rolls around each year, the work seems to have grown harder and the time consumed appears to be slightly longer, but the effect of the exercises show their importance when the opportunity presents itself in the form of a monthly test. A daily exercise routine, plus a few laps around the indoor track has proven its value time after time. The underclassmen, meanwhile, practice athletic fundamentals.

Physical Education is not all work and no play. Tumbling has always proven to be a big favorite among the classes, not only on the mats but also on the "springy" tramp-o-line. In their respective seasons touch football, basketball, and baseball are always welcomed and enjoyed. While some students find that they enjoy sports out on the field of play, others would rather spend the majority of their time on one of the many spacious, indoor courts, where battle ball, volley ball, badminton, squash, and hand ball are played. There's never a dull moment in gym.

In the spring of each year the boys perform their annual exhibition, last year's meet being the first time an exhibition had been performed in a competitive nature. Thus we draw to a close another year of fun and agony.

berry; Taffy Goodnow. Bottom row: Phyllis Merrill; Edith White; Laura Bennett (captain); Elizabeth Davis; Doris Sturtevant.

Girls' Physical Education

Last spring the girls' athletic program ended in a new and rather effective way. All four classes worked together in the gym meet, abandoning the competitive idea of previous years. It was held at the Field House instead of the Girls' Gym and proved to be much more interesting than past meets.

This year the girls have had to forfeit Miss Marion Stallwood, gym teacher at Gould for the past three years, to Japan, but have been under the capable direction of the efficient and athletic enthusiast, Miss Doryce Arndt from Lewiston.

In the fall, hockey and archery were the main sports of interest, with tennis and hiking following close behind. Hockey, the first and foremost sport, had many enthusiasts as usual. When the class teams were formed, the Seniors found out they weren't as good as they thought, and the juniors managed to pull out on top. Bad weather, however, prevented the Blue and Gold Teams from battling out the annual Blue and Gold Game.

Next on the agenda was volleyball, in which the seniors held the upper hand to regain their dignity and save their reputation from the hockey outcome.

Snow came early, much to everyone's delight, and the basement of the Girl's Dorm once again became the place of much activity, in due respect to the care of skis. There were many more enthusiasts than in past years and four classes were formed. Under the helpful instruction of Mr. Meyers and Robert Waiguny the new asset to Gould nicknamed the Australian wonder on skis, the gals learned everything from kick-turns to christies in their classes, and, on special occasions the upper two classes, to save wear and tear on their legs, arms, and backs, were taken out to the Bethel tow.

Skiing, however, did not hinder basketball, which was an ardent rival to the snow sport in popularity, and many found time for both. A different system for practice was exercised this year. Each class chose a first and second team and all eight teams played each other. Finally from the first and second teams a class team was chosen. The victorious team was the senior team.

The Modern Dance Group was again organized and had a larger membership than in previous years. They did much in the way of Modern Dance preliminaries and worked out a dance to "Slaughter on Tenth Avenue."

Badminton, a popular sport of the late winter, followed basketball and skiing, and many a time, partners were seen out in front of the gym swatting a bird around in practice for a doubles tournament.

Many valuable athletic enthusiasts were found among the new students this year. The girls are lucky to have the equipment and instruction that Gould offers which helps to make a fine all around person.

MAXIMS TO GUIDE A YOUTH

By One of Your Neighbors

Keep good company or none. Never be idle; if your hands cannot be usefully employed, attend to the cultivation of your mind.

Always speak the truth; make few promises; live up to your engagements; when you speak to any person, look him straight in the face.

Good company and good conversation are the very sinews of virtue. Good character is above all things else. Never listen to loose or idle conversation; you had better be poisoned in your blood than in your principles.

Your character cannot be essentially injured except by your own acts. If any one should speak evil of you, let your life be so virtuous that none will believe him.

Always speak and act as if in the presence of your Maker; drink no intoxicating liquors; ever live, misfortune excepted, within your income; when you retire to bed think over what you have done during the day.

Never speak lightly of any one, make no haste to be rich if you would prosper; small and steady gains give competency with tranquillity of mind.

Never play any game of chance; avoid the temptation through fear that you may not withstand it. Earn your money before you spend it. Never run in debt unless you see a way to get out of it.

Never borrow, if you can possibly avoid it. Be just before you are generous. Keep yourself innocent if you would be happy. Save when you are young, to spend when you are old.

Never think what you do to alleviate the sufferings of your fellow beings time or money lost. Be kind and generous, for the whole human family is depending one upon the other.
